

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

OLDEST NEWSPAPER IN WESTERN KENTUCKY.

ESTABLISHED 1859.

HICKMAN, FULTON COUNTY, KY, APRIL 13, 1900

VOL. XXXV, NO. 20.

Local and Personal.

Miss Lillian Tams is visiting in Union City.

Special Easter services at the Catholic Church, Sunday.

Services at the C. P. Church, Sunday, by A. S. Deane.

Misses Light and Irene Farris are visiting in Terrell, Tenn.

Mrs. L. A. Stone has returned from a visit to Greenville, Tenn.

Mrs. Jennie Wilson is visiting in St. Louis, and will remain there several months.

Capt. J. J. Young has gone to Toledo, Ill., to take charge of a transfer post.

Mrs. F. W. Kiser, of Union City, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. T. Emerson.

Mrs. D. B. Barnett and children, of Reelfoot, Tenn., are guests of Mrs. M. Adams.

Tom Hickman, who has been attending a school of pharmacy, at Louisville, has returned home.

Misses Claude Walker and W. S. Ellison returned yesterday from a trip to Louisville and Cincinnati.

The C. P. ladies weekly coffee will meet at the home of Mrs. John Kistner, next Wednesday. Everybody invited.

Admiral Dewey's rally song for his campaign should be the old refrain: "Needles and pins, needles and pins; when a man marries his trouble begins."

A small fire occurred in East Hickman, Monday night, a small frame house belonging to Mr. Tom Plummer being destroyed. It was not occupied, and no insurance.

The State Board refused Fulton county's tax assessment from 13 cents to 7 cents—that is reduced the increase, Messrs. R. T. Tyler and J. W. Morris appeared before the Board.

Special Easter services and music in the Episcopal Church, Sunday at 11 a. m., to which all are cordially invited. On April 29th, Bishop Dudley will visit the parish and will consecrate the church at the morning service, and the same evening he will administer the rite of confirmation.

Manager Chas. C. Farmer, of McCarroll 11th, lectured to a fair-sized audience at City Hall, Monday night, in the interest of the Woodmen of the World. He said that "Fraternity" had erected a grand house into which the city of men could enter and find peace, many outrages and all of them were good. One could enter through the door, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Knights of Honor, Woodmen of the World, etc. He commended them all but claimed that the Woodmen embraced the best features of all these orders, the three great tenets of this Order are that no Woodman shall sleep in an unmarked grave; all policies are incontestable after the first year, and no policy shall expire while the holder is on a sick bed. He closed by urging the members of Elm Camp No. 3 of this city, to assist themselves and get their neighbors and friends to connect themselves with this noble Order.

Council Proceedings.

HICKMAN, KY, APRIL 11, 1900.

Council met in regular session at 8 o'clock, Mayor Dillon, Councilmen Ellison, Cowgill, Wearn, Davis and Bevard.

The Mayor stated the object of the meeting is to take steps to keep the town in good sanitary condition, in view of the existence of small pox near Alexander, in this county, and to prevent the introduction and spread of same in the city.

On motion it is ordered that every property owner in the city be required to clean up and put his premises in order, and to water time and use other disinfectants around the stable outhouses, or any place where germs may be developed.

On motion it is ordered that the Mayor shall arrest and isolate every person in the city not having evidence of successful vaccination or other reasonable evidence as can be immediately vaccinated under penalty of a fine of $5.00 per day for every day failing to do so.

On motion the Mayor is directed to provide free vaccination for such of the citizens as prove their inability to comply with above from lack of means.

On motion it is ordered that the Mayor be appointed to secure a POISON ALBUQUERQUE FUMIGATING MACHINE to use in disinfecting such places as the Physician of the city may find desirable.

Mayor Dillon appointed Cowgill, Ellison and Davis as sub-committee.

On motion Council adjourned.

Attest, H. C. Helm, C. C.

That Tarboosh Headache

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

George Warren.

HICKMAN, KY.,
FRIDAY, : : : APRIL 12, 1900.

CLEVELAND declines to say whether he is for Bryan or not. He is mum on the subject.

HON. W. J. BRYAN has made the positive statement that he will not attend the Democratic National Convention at Kansas City.

FRIENDS of ex-Gov. Robert L. Taylor, of Tennessee, are using his name in connection with the Democratic vice presidential nomination.

THE United States Government is to issue a proclamation in Chinese in all the work of the Chinese Bazaar. The census man, like the Government, wants a Chinese open door when he calls.

GENERAL WHEELER believes that he accomplished a life work without any one man when he led the Southern troops under the Stars and Stripes in the Spanish War. The people agree with him.

Is the administration so hard up for campaign funds that it has to levy a tax on struggling Porto Rico, why doesn't Mark Hanna capture Aguinaldo and let him out to Buffalo Bill until after the election?

DISAPPEARS from Bloomington, which have passed the censor's hands, indicate that chaos reigns there. There is even fear that the Boers will attack that city, and soldiers are sleeping in the trenches around the city.

The idea of having the next Democratic candidate for Governor nominated in a primary election seems to be seriously proposed in some quarters and several influential persons are urging that this plan be adopted.

COL. THOS. S. PETTIT has issued a call for a conference of Kentucky Populists at Louisville, April 25. He is setting up the authority of the regular Populist organization, independent of the "Middle-of-the-Roaders."

DEWEY was thought to be a Republican and Mrs. Dewey a Democrat. Mrs. Dewey was a Roman Catholic and Dewey an Episcopalian. Now Dewey is a democrat and Mrs. Dewey an Episcopalian. Mrs. Dewey accepts his church and she accepts her politics.

EX GOV. CAMPBELL, of Ohio, said the other day: "I take all the democrats in the country working in union to carry a national election." At the same time Mr. Campbell said that Bryan was stronger than he was in '96 while McKinley was weaker, and that he saw no reason why the former should not be elected.

CHAIRMAN JONES, of the National Democratic Executive Committee, is sending considerable literature over the country preparatory to the National Convention to be held at Kansas City, July 4th. The States are allowed two delegates for each Congressional District and two for each Senator. Kentucky is entitled to twenty-six delegates.

CHAS. A. TOWNE, Chairman of the Silver Republican National Committee, has called for a National Convention of that wing of the Republican party to be held in Kansas City July 4th. This indicates that they are disposed to cut in their lot with the Democracy by calling their National Convention in the same city and on the same day as the Democratic National Convention.

WALTER DAVIS, former Assistant Secretary of the Interior, who recently visited the Transval, delivered a pro-Bos speech to a large audience at the Grand Opera House in Washington Sunday night. A number of the members of the Senate and House heard Mr. Davis' address. A resolution denouncing Great Britain and its secret allies in this country met with a storm of blows, but was declared adopted. Mr. Morgan, the chairman of the meeting, was greeted with hisses and cries of "traitor" when he announced the Administration.

We hear a heap of chat these days about whether or not "the constitution follows the flag," says a Charlotte (N. C.) Observer. It used to. Of course it went slower, but it went. When the flag flew over the Mississippi into Texas and the great Western Territories, the constitution sat down on the levee on the east bank of the Mississippi, took off her shoes and stockings, and then, like Conally Sally Dillard, histed her skirts and waded over into the new empire. But the constitution is nawel. She isn't as pretty as she was when she was younger, and is not as much thought of. She's sick, too, and even such good doctors as Dr. Bailey, of Texas, and Dr. Littlefield, of Maine, can't cure her. "Does the constitution follow the flag?" An impaired constitution can't follow anything.

McKINLEY MAKES HIS BED.

The President has carried his bed and whips into his campaign.

can Senators to pass his tall tales.

the poor Porto Rican "coming on a gawine." Porto Rico is denied trade with the United States, if it is not a territory, but as required by tariff duties on its products shipped into this country. The islands are so voluntarily to escape the burdens of Spanish taxation without recognition and the President has betrayed the confidence of the confiding and every-loving people who asked for redress and has committed himself to this same old principle: that caused the American colonies to throw off the yoke of Great Britain and induce the Pap Romans to ask for annexation to the United States. Coming to us as willing subjects, we refuse them the liberty they sought and proceed to tax them in commodities, denied representation in Congress. It matters not what the tariff rates may be fixed at. It is not the amount involved, but the principle involved. Since Mason, a Republican, declared in his speech against the tariff that it violates the constitution and that Congress has no more right to tax the products of Porto Rico than has to put a duty on products passing between New York and Washington.

Editor Kohlsaat, of the Chicago Times Herald, warns the President that he is trifling with the nation's honor, and that the people will never submit to the unjust taxation of any part of the United States.

To Pay Back.

Truly wonders are never ceasing. The pension office at Washington received the following letter recently:

I have recently joined the church, the pension office at Washington received the following letter recently:

My new friend, I have been thinking of the pension which I have been drawing for the past few years. I have been thinking of the pension which I have been drawing for the past few years. I have been thinking of the pension which I have been drawing for the past few years.

Gen. Miles for President.

In the army to have a presidential candidate? The New York World says, "Gen. Miles is ready to show the flag and will willingly accept the democratic nomination. With the Admiral of the navy and the commanding General of the army making campaign for votes, what will civilian candidates come to?"

STRONG LEADS THE WEAK.

There is something ominous in the growing sentiment of hostility to the Government which has now assumed such proportions in Cuba as to give cause for apprehension of a revolt against American control in the near future.

To the many thousands of Americans whose hearts thrilled with pride at the glorious significance of our war against Spain for the liberation of Cuba this unhappy prospect will seem one of peculiar bitterness in its meaning of cruel disappointment and humiliation. It should be impossible that relations between a great power such as ours and a little and weak people, such as the Cubans, whom we have freed from the bondage of Spanish tyranny, shall assume that portended phase where fear of a second conquest and a second oppression lead the weaker race to hopeless and costly antagonism to the kindly guidance of the stronger.
